

"If you know one person with autism you know one person with autism"

Communication Tips

- Address the individual by name first
- Speak directly, simply, slowly and at a normal volume
- Try to make eye contact
- Avoid broad open-ended questions
- Provide a non-verbal communication board

Behaviors to Ignore "If it's not bothering somebody... let it go"

- Rocking
- Quiet Humming
- Pacing
- Wiggling

Behaviors You Should Not Ignore

- Destructive Activities
- Violent Tantrums
- Loud or inappropriate interaction with other patrons
- Violent Tantrums

Behavior Tips

- Offer to help the caregiver and be empathetic
- Sit next to the person with autism
- Redirect attention
- Ask common social questions
- Offer to relocate other patrons

Emergency Tips

- Contact security
- Call 911
- Do not touch the individual
- Avoid standing too close

Relationship Building Tips

- Don't be condescending
- Be aware of your own attitude and avoid being judgemental
- Don't consider the caregiver as an intermediary
- Be an ambassador
- Give a tour of your library
- Know where your autism materials are located
- Offer "This Is My Library" book

"The library can be a wonderful place for people with autism... with its cozy nooks and crannies... and books, and because it's not necessarily demanding anything socially, it's kind of perfect for somebody with autism"